Hawaiian Airlines Master Executive Council Updated February 27, 2024 Re: JFK Hotel Relocation

Dear Members,

Commencing with all arrivals at JFK on February 19th, we will be relocating to the Hotel 50 Bowery in Manhattan.

This hotel is located in Lower Manhattan, near Little Italy and China Town and we have used this hotel in the past for JFK relocations and we received positive feedback. As I mentioned in my last JFK update, the hotel situation for our JFK layovers is fluid and there will likely be other properties being utilized until we can find a new permanent home there.

It is my understanding that we will not be returning to the Hampton Inn due to the safety and security issues brought on by the migrant center across the street from that hotel. As of this writing, we have booked all JFK crews at the Hotel 50 Bowery through March 31st. If you are on one of the crews that stay here, please send me your feedback either via a CrewConnex Report, text message, Facebook DM, or email. You all will be my eyes and ears during these relocations, and it is important that I hear from you.

I realize that many of you bid to fly JFK trips or even avoid JFK trips based on the hotel that we use. I can tell you that the March Bid Packet is incorrect, and we will not be staying at the Hampton Inn. We may be forced to use a few different hotels until our committee travels to JFK to review all properties interested in our business. I will continue to update all of you as soon as I receive information from HA Management.

ROLL TIMES DIFFER BY DAYS*****

- 1) Monday – Friday will be 2:15 prior to scheduled departure.
- 2) Saturday and Sunday will be 2:00 prior to scheduled departure.
